

OECD DUE DILIGENCE GUIDANCE FOR RESPONSIBLE SUPPLY CHAIN

2025

OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chain

This policy confirms ADLER JOAILLIERS's commitment to respect human rights, not to contribute to the financing of conflicts and to respect all applicable UN sanctions, resolutions and laws. It also affirms its commitment to ethical, social and environmental responsibility.

ADLER JOAILLIERS is a member of the Responsible Jewellery Council. As such, we undertake to demonstrate, through independent third party verification, that we:

- a. Respect human rights in accordance with the Guiding Principles of the United Nations and the Declaration of the International Labour Organization on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work. In particular, we strongly reject and condemn child labour, forced labour, covert and clandestine labour, human trafficking, harassment violence at work and all forms of discrimination. We will cease any relationship with the relevant stakeholder in the event of a breach of these provisions.
- b. Do not participate in or tolerate any form of money laundering or terrorist financing.
- c. Support transparency of payments from rights-compliant governments and security forces in the extractive industries.
- d. We prioritize the security of people over that of property
- e. Strongly reject and condemn any form or attempt of corruption and facilitation payment in any form they present ourselves we commit to support employees who might be faced with any attempt of corruption
- f. Allow stakeholders to express anonymously and without fear of reprisals their concerns regarding possible ill-treatment at work, violations of human rights, as well as corruption, or related to the jewelry supply chain. To this end, we have put in place and are making available to the parties concerned a complaints mechanism, which can be obtained upon request from the following address: whistleblowing@adler.ch
- g. Put in place the OECD's five-step framework for the exercise of a risk-based due diligence on the supply chain for minerals from conflict or high-risk areas:
We also undertake to use our influence to avoid possible abuse by other parties.
- h. We undertake to respect and promote compliance with the KIMBERLEY PROCESS procedure concerning the purchase and sale of diamonds.
- i. Adopt an environmentally responsible attitude and practices to control our impact on the environment.

Concerning serious damage to the extraction, transport, or trade of minerals

We will not tolerate, assist, or facilitate in any way the commission of the following acts, nor will we profit from or contribute to them:

- torture or cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment;
- forced or compulsory labor;
- the worst forms of child labor;
- violations and violations of human rights.
- war crimes, or other gross violations of international humanitarian law, crimes against humanity or genocide.

We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are committing abuses described above or are sourcing from, or linked to, any party committing these abuses.

Regarding direct or indirect support to non-State armed groups

We will not tolerate any direct or indirect support to non-State armed groups or their affiliates — including through the supply of gold, diamonds or precious stones, the payment of money or the provision of logistical, material or other assistance — unlawfully engaged in the following activities:

- a. Unlawful control of mining sites or transport routes, points of trade in minerals and upstream actors in the supply chain.
- b. Illegal taxation or extortion of gold silver of diamonds or precious stones on mining sites, transport routes or trading points of gold, silver and precious metals of the Platinum mine, diamonds, or precious stones, or against intermediaries, exporting companies or international traders.

We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are sourcing from, or are linked to, any party providing direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups as described above.

Regarding public or private security forces

We affirm that the role of public or private security forces is to provide security to workers, facilities, equipment, and property in accordance with the rule of law, including law that guarantees human rights. We will not provide direct or indirect support to public or private security forces that commit abuses or that act illegally as described in the above paragraphs.

Regarding bribery and fraudulent misrepresentation of the origin of gold, silver, precious metals of the Platinum mine, diamonds, and precious stones

We will not offer, promise, give or demand bribes, and will resist the solicitation of bribes, to conceal or disguise the origin of gold, silver, precious metals of the Platinum mine, diamonds and precious stones, or to misrepresent taxes, fees and royalties paid to governments for the purposes of extraction, trade, handling, transport and export of gold, silver, precious metals of the Platinum mine, diamonds and precious stones.

Regarding money laundering

We will support and contribute to efforts to eliminate money laundering where we identify a reasonable risk resulting from, or connected to, the extraction, trade, handling, transport or export of gold, silver, precious metals of the Platinum mine, diamonds, and precious stones.

Geneva, 6th of July, 2025